

Escuela del Sol and its Harwood Art Center Present

What?

Our biennial gala featuring dinner, silent and live auctions – with an average of 300 guests, this fun event draws attendees from both the Escuela del Sol and Harwood Art Center communities: parents, grandparents, artists, students, community members.

Escuela del Sol has been an independent not-for-profit Montessori school for over 40 years. The Harwood Art Center was founded in 1991 as the community outreach program of Escuela, in keeping with its commitment to fostering creativity and life-long learning.

All proceeds from the event support the programs of Escuela and the Harwood:

- Financial Aid
- Building and Campus Improvements
- Faculty Development
- Harwood Community Programs
 - Afterschool Arts Programming with Neighborhood Community Centers
 - the Buzz Neighborhood Garden
 - the Carnuel Road Parade and Autumnfest
 - the Mayor's Art Summer Institute for teen artists
